Wireless Summons Rescued Ship and 103 Passengers Are Saved

CREW STICKS ABOARD

While Their Boat is Conveyed by the Pannonia and Makes for the Bermudas—Had Inflammable Cargo.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 15.—Meager wireless dispatches received today of the rescue at sea of 103 passengers from the burning Spanish steamship Balmes by the Cunard liner Pannonia. Though fire was still raving today the Balmes' crew of 55 was presumably sticking by their vessel which, conveyed by the Pannonia, was making for Bermuda, which should be made some time Monday.

Where, how or when the fire broke out on the Balmes was not disclosed in the preliminary wireless message. She was eastward bound for Spain with a highly inflammable cargo of cotton and rum when the Cunard liner, bound hither, from Mediterranean ports came to her assistance.

This must have been some time after 7 p. m. of Wednesday last, for at that time the Pannonia reported that she was 1100 miles east of Ambrose light but made no mention of the Balmes.

First news of the disaster came through a freak wireless message picked up by the Marconi operator at Cape Race, N. F. While it purported to come from the Pannonia and said that she had on board the Balmes passengers, the operator could not confirm the message and was further puzzled by the fact that the Pannonia, with a comparatively feeble wireless outfit, was admittedly out of range. The wireless message remained unsolved until the Cunard offices in this city received from Lloyd's agents in Bermuda a cablegram announcing that Captain Capper of the Pannonia had reported by wireless the safe rescue of the Balmes passengers and the fact that she was escorting the Balmes, still on fire to the island.

The Balmes is a comparatively small vessel of Spanish ownership and is rated as a freighter. The Pannonia is one of the slower boats of the Cunard, making something less than 200 miles a day. She was built in 1904, has a gross tonnage of 9851 and is 480 feet long.

MONTREAL FIRST TO RECEIVE NEWS
OF FIRE AT SEA

Montreal, Nov. 15.—A message received here today by the Marconi company from its wireless operator at Cape Race, N. F., indicated that the Spanish freighter Balmes was on fire at sea and that her passengers had been transferred to the Cunard liner Pannonia. This message purported to come from the Pannonia, but the operator who forwarded it from Cape Race, said it must be considered as a "freak" because the Pannonia was nearly one thousand miles distant when it was received. On that account he was unable to reach the Pannonia to obtain confirmation. The message from Cape Race follows:

"The Pannonia reports that she is conveying the steamer Balmes, which is on fire, to Bermuda. Her passengers have been transferred to the Pannonia and are safe."

The information could not be confirmed. The message gives no position. The Pannonia is out of the ordinary wireless range of the Cape Race station.

The Balmes sailed from Galveston, October 23, and touched at Havana November 6, before proceeding to Spain. The steamer is owned by Munioz, Izquierdo & Company of Cadiz.

The Balmes is a Freighter.

Cape Race, N. F., Nov. 15.—The Spanish steamer Balmes is on fire in the North Atlantic and her passengers have been transferred to the Cunard liner Pannonia, according to a wireless message received from the Pannonia today.

The Balmes is a freighter of 300 tons. It is believed that she carried few passengers. She sailed from Havana November 6 for Cadiz. The Pannonia is due in New York on Sunday from the Mediterranean.

The message received by the operator here made no mention of the crew of the Balmes.

FLOOD STAGE
PREDICTED IN OHIO VALLEY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Nov. 15.—Swollen by incessant rains during the past 48 hours, the Ohio and Great Kanawha rivers are rapidly approaching the flood stage. The Ohio river has risen eight and one-half feet during the past 24 hours.

Melting snows from the great storm of last Sunday have contributed largely to the volume of waters that has already submerged lowlands. Residents in those sections are preparing to move out, in anticipation of a flood.

A stage of 52 feet is expected at the mouth of the Great Kanawha river at Point Pleasant, W. Va. The danger line at that point is 39 feet.

Hogan Denies Workmen's
Compensation Law Will be
Invalidated by Ruling

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 15.—Attorney General Hogan and members of the state industrial commission, which have charge of the administration of state liability insurance, today denied that the workmen's compensation law will be invalidated by the ruling of Judge William Day of the United States district court at Cleveland, given in his charge to a jury yesterday.

The suit of John J. McWeeney of Cleveland against the Standard Boiler & Plate company of Ames, was brought under the old workmen's compensation law, by which an injured man could either bring suit for damages or apply for compensation from the state liability board of awards, but not both. Wallace D. Yaple, chairman of the state industrial commission, explained today McWeeney was granted a $14,000 verdict for an injury which stiffened his knee. It was one of three suits filed out of a total of 14,000 claims made under the compensation act.

"The compulsory workmen's compensation act, which by its terms becomes effective Jan. 1, 1915, gives to employers who have complied with its terms by paying their premiums into the state insurance fund as complete protection as can be given under the provisions of our constitution," said Chairman Yaple. "The measure of protection afforded by it is greater than under the old act, and I predict that its practical working will demonstrate that employers not only have ample protection but that injured employees and the dependents of those killed in the course of their employment are afforded much more ample compensation than by the law of any other state."

Under its provisions employers who comply with the safety laws are absolutely immune from suit from injured employees and the sole remedy of the injured employee is to apply to the industrial commission and receive compensation from the state insurance fund."

Mr. Yaple and Attorney General Hogan expressed the belief that attorneys for liability insurance companies had inspired the interpretation of Judge Day's ruling to injure the state insurance system.

Prosecuting attorneys of the five largest counties of the state held a conference with Attorney General Hogan today to discuss prosecutor's duties under the new Green compulsory workmen's compensation law which will go into effect January 1, 1915. The law provides that county prosecutors must act under the direction of the attorney general to prosecute employers who fail to comply with the provisions of the law, and defend the state industrial commission in suits brought against it.

A provision of the law which probably will cause suit against employers is that prescribing proper safety devices. The state industrial commission also is empowered to order safety devices which it thinks necessary installed.

The prosecuting attorneys who attended the conference are Cyrus Locher, Cuyahoga; Thomas L. Pozner, Hamilton; E. C. Turner, Franklin; Charles E. Milroy, Lucas; and Robert C. Patterson, Montgomery. It was called on request of Prosecutor Pozner.

The prosecuting attorneys also conferred with A. B. Peckinpaugh, member of the state tax commission in regard to their duties under the new law which makes them the legal advisers of the deputy state tax commissioners or district assessors.

Commissioner Peckinpaugh said it would not be the policy of the commission to make frequent requisition upon the prosecutors for their services. They will only be asked to step in and ask the questions in difficult cases in which the county deputies may be uncertain regarding the legal aspects.

CARRIED A CREW OF 28

All of Whom Must Have Been Lost—Search Being Continued for Frozen Bodies on Lake Huron's Shores.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 15.—One of the strangest mysteries in connection with the destruction of vessels and men on the Great Lakes by last Sunday's storm was solved this forenoon, when William Baker, a diver, identified the overturned vessel in Lake Huron, thirteen miles northeast of this port as the Charles B. Price, of Cleveland. The Price, a steamer 504 feet long, has been lying in the lake ever since the storm, with only a few feet of the bottom of her bow above water. She is said to have carried a crew of 28. All of them must have been lost. It is still thought that the wrecking of the Price and the Regina must have been in the same locality. The diver, however, found no evidence of another submerged vessel besides the Price. The opinion that the two steamers went down near each other, is borne out by the fact that the body of one of the Price's men when found was wrapped in a Regina life belt.

Ship owners and anxious relatives of the eight boats which went down in Lake Huron during the storm, today began another search for the frozen bodies which are being tossed up almost hourly on the Canadian shore.

The establishment of the identity of the "mystery ship" makes it certain that the boats claimed by the John A. McGean, Charles S. Price, James S. Carruthers, Regina, Wexford, Argus, Hydrys and Isaac M. Scott, involving a death loss of approximately 195. Besides this startling total, the storm took the Leifield, William Nottingham, Henry B. Smith, Plymouth and Lightship No. 82, and in the neighborhood of 61 lives on Lake Superior, Lake Michigan and Lake Erie.

BELIEVE CREW OF
42 HAS PERISHED
IN ICY WATERS

Montreal, Nov. 15.—The steam collier Bridgeport, sailing from Sydney, Cape Breton, with a crew of 42 and a cargo of 10,000 tons of coal, has been lost and probably all on board have perished according to an official announcement made today by the Dominion Coal company which chartered the vessel.

Wreckage found on the shores of Bird Rock Island in the St. Lawrence river, told the story of the tragedy. According to information received by the Dominion Coal Co. this wreckage has been identified sufficiently to make reasonably certain the presumption that the lost vessel was the Bridgeport.

No word of the crew has been received and the opinion prevails that they met death in the icy waters of the St. Lawrence. The Bridgeport sailed from Sydney on November 1, with coal for Montreal. She was overdue and fears had been entertained during the past 48 hours that she had failed to weather the storm of the past week.

Jenkins & Co. of London, are the owners.

NO WORD FROM THE LIGHTSHIP

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 15.—Fear felt today by the United States light-house service that Lightship No. 82 was sunk in the recent storm that swept the Great Lakes and now is lying beneath the waters of Lake Michigan. Reports reached the service that the tender, Crocus, had searched for the vessel in vain, and that the waters yet were too rough to make an investigation beneath the surface. The commander of the Crocus was ordered to spare no pains in ascertaining at once the vessel's fate.

WITHDRAWAL
PREDICTED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mexico City, Nov. 15.—Senators and deputies elected recently to form the new congress in place of that dissolved by Provisional President Huerta, will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in their respective houses to choose temporary speakers. Early today President Huerta had given no indication that he intended to alter his program to comply with the demands made by John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson, that he prevent the organization of the new congress. It would not be a surprise in official circles here if the American embassy were withdrawn. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affaires received a communication from the state department at Washington last night which is believed contained instructions governing his actions.

Unless the present plan is abandoned by President Huerta within the next few hours the men chosen to replace these senators and deputies, now prisoners in the penitentiary will assemble for a preliminary meeting with Manuel Garza Aldape, minister of the interior as acting temporary chairman. Ordinarily this post would fall to some member of the previous congress.

Today's sessions are expected to be confined to the formality of selecting temporary officers. Monday is the day fixed for both houses to meet and revise the credentials of their members. This business will probably occupy two days at the most. Since few contests are expected, the temporary organization should be effected in this time. Official returns of the recent election show that all 60 deputies and senators had been elected unanimously.

On Wednesday both Houses of Congress are expected to elect their permanent officers, and appoint delegates to notify President Huerta and the supreme court, of the formal opening of congress. The first regular session for the transaction of business is expected to occur in the afternoon of November 20. On that day it is anticipated that President Huerta will personally deliver his message to congress, reviewing the events since the dissolution of the previous congress.

Rumors heard yesterday and circulated with additional persistency today are to the effect that the American embassy will be withdrawn on Monday or earlier. Mr. Lind is credited with the authorship of these rumors and with the additional statement that marines are to be landed as a protest against President Huerta's defiance of the Washington government.

In that event it is probable that Vera Cruz will be evacuated by the federals. It is reported here that the government army commander at Vera Cruz has been instructed, in such an event, to make no opposition but to withdraw his force to some point nearer the capital and there await instructions.

Manuel Garza Aldape, it was reported today, is still making efforts through the American embassy to secure some modification of Mr. Lind's last statement to President Huerta. He is said to have been in communication with Charge O'Shaughnessy last midnight.

It is not improbable that there will be an eleven hour alteration of the government plan with reference to the meeting of congress, since it is not regarded as probable that Washington will recede from the stand announced by Mr. Lind to the effect that congress shall not meet as ordered by Provisional President Huerta.

Mexico City, Nov. 15.—In view of Venustiano Carranza's repudiation of any form of mediation by or alliance with the United States, Provisional President Huerta can do no less than join him in his expression of patriotic sentiment and maintain unaltered his dignified attitude toward Washington.

This statement was made at the national palace today.

This declaration appears to cast some doubt upon any renewal of the negotiations between Mexico and the United States according to the view taken by well-informed persons here. They declare that it tends to substantiate the belief that no hope is left of an amicable adjustment.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mexico City, Nov. 15.—No indication had been given at the United States embassy up till 10 o'clock this morning that General Huerta had manifested any desire to accede to the American demands relative to the Mexican congress on which it was reported the time limit was to expire at noon today. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires denied, however, that any time limit had been fixed.

There was every indication today that the newly elected Mexican congressmen would meet for purpose of organization at the hour specified although rumors were current that a counter order would be issued by the provisional president at the last moment.

General Huerta is said to be yet unconvinced of the advisability of resigning, and it is suggested here that Venustiano Carranza's refusal of the propositions made to him by William Bayard Hale, personal representative of President Wilson, has had the effect of bolstering him up in his defiance.

At the national palace the attitude of the United States is characterized as indicative of a trafficking people and today many Mexicans reverted to their traditional declaration that any interference in their affairs by a foreign government would be met by the united Mexican people.

Pessimism was frankly in evidence at the American embassy where until yesterday considerable optimism had been shown.

School Survey Meeting
Last Evening Attended
By Good Sized Audience

Several hundred Newark people realize more fully today what a wonderful institution the public school is. Several thousands of people throughout Ohio realize more fully how closely the public school is associated with the church, the press, the community and the state. Also, they realize more pronouncedly some of the shortcomings of the modern educational system.

Antiquated teaching methods Friday night were deplored, and the new art of teaching the art of being useful to self and society at large was hailed as the solution of the citizenship problem of the future. The tone of progress, sounded in the school survey mass meeting, in the high school auditorium Friday night was as loud, too, in the cause of health as in the cause of mentality and morals.

With vigor the audience, which filled the auditorium comfortably with only a few vacant seats remaining, voted on delegates to the state educational convention to be held in Columbus, Dec. 5 and 6, whose names were selected for nomination by a committee consisting of Prof. W. E. Painter, F. L. Johnson and Attorney A. S. Mitchell.

Delegates elected were: Supt. Wilson Hawkins, President Edward Kibler, of the board of education; Mrs. E. S. Randolph, Mrs. Eliza Rankin, W. M. Morgan and Rev. Calvin G. Hazlett.

All were elected by acclamation. An extremely interesting program, which started late and lasted until after 10 o'clock, was carried out in the form previously announced. Superintendent of Public Schools Wilson Hawkins presiding. Relationship of the public schools to the state, to health, to the press, to the community, respectively, were discussed by Attorney Carl Norpell, Dr. W. C. Rank, Editor C. L. H. Leach, Librarian Eliza J. Rankin, Principal O. J. Barnes, Banker C. L. V. Holtz, and Rev. Dor D. Tullis. Invocation was said by Rev. W. D. Ward and benediction by Rev. Chas. Laughlin.

Here are a few of the suggestions embodied in the talks of Friday night:

Radical changes in course of training demanded by the people for better preparing the product of the schools for industrial pursuits. School buildings in lacking condition valued at $50,000 must stand for the even development of the moral (Continued on Page 2, Column 4.)

"Les Miserables."

A goodly sized audience was out last night to see that wonderful exhibition of motion photography "Les Miserables." Victor Hugo's narrative of humanity. This picture is without a doubt one of the most stupendous that has as yet been filmed, and is enacted by a company of the stars of the leading French theaters. The picture is 1,000 feet long and requires two and one half hours for its projection. It is a picture that all should see. There will be three more showings, tonight, Sunday matinee and Sunday night. Seats now selling for the night performance.

"The Spendthrift."

At the Auditorium, Friday, Nov. 21, theatergoers have their first opportunity of witnessing "The Spendthrift," the latest dramatic work of Porter Emerson Browne, whose "A Fool There Was" has given him a position among American dramatists. The piece is a "vital drama of today" and deals primarily with the extravagance and wasted opportunities of a class of women who are numerous in certain strata of society. The basic theme of "The Spendthrift" appeared to Browne for a long time before he set his thoughts on paper and when he did he put into his writing all the vitality with which the idea was invested during the mental evolution.

Return of "Within the Law."

Introducing to the stage for the first time smokeless powder and a Maxim silencer, Bayard Veiller's new play of mystery and thrills, "Within the Law," which the American Play Co. is to present for a return engagement at the Auditorium, Monday, November 24, with the same cast and production as seen here before, warrants the designation given it by New York critics as a "drama of the minute." These modern instruments of violence add greatly to the mystery which the police are called upon to solve in the play. "Within the Law" is now in its second year in New York and promises to hold the record for long runs of an American play. A very clever cast of players will present the play in this city.

Dempsey-Donovan Bout 25 Years Ago Today Was Boxing Classic

Those lovers of boxing who were fortunate enough to have a seat in Palace Hall in Brooklyn twenty-five years ago tonight were blessed beyond the average of fight fans, for they saw a battle that, despite its brevity, will ever rank among the classics of the boxing game. The antagonists were Jack Dempsey, then at the height of his powers as middleweight champion of the world, and Prof. Mike Donovan, former middleweight champion, and then as now instructor in the main art at the New York Athletic Club. Dempsey was a native of County Kildare, and Mike Donovan—well, figure out his nationality for yourself. And there was bad blood between them, glory be! In fact, Donovan had returned to the ring, after a long retirement, only to get a chance to satisfy his grudge against the champion. Donovan was even then well advanced in years. He had been old enough in the '90s to tote a gun in the civil war, and for twenty years thereafter he was active in the ring, the hero of many long and bloody bare fist engagements. Small wonder that, under such circumstances, the a-leet of the sporting world flocked to Brooklyn to see the ruckus. When the hour for the fight arrived the arena was packed to the squeezing point. The battle was held off nearly an hour to permit Nat Goodwin to reach the scene of action, the actor having threatened all sorts of ructions if Donovan and Dempsey were permitted to fight out the scheduled six rounds before he could reach the scene of the obsequies. And the crowd was not disappointed—not for a minute. Those who had expected Dempsey to "put it all over the old man" sat up and took notice when the professor ducked and dodged the champion's blows and landed many good ones of his own. The first round left nothing to choose and in the second Mike had the shade. Dempsey showed strong in the fourth, but in the fifth and sixth rounds it was nip and tuck, jab and dodge, buff and faint, with both men using every ounce of strength and every trick of generalship and science known to the game. In the end the referee called it a draw. Youth must be served, his said, but that was an off night for youth. Every spectator went away satisfied—something that occurs about once every blue moon.

SURE WAY TO END RHEUMATISM

Case Stiff, Sore Joints and Muscles. Makes Pains and Backache Promptly Vanish.

"Most all rheumatism is due to one cause—weak kidneys," says a noted authority. The kidneys become clogged up, get sluggish and filter or strain out only a part of the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, all the rest remains in the blood and circulates through the system, where it lodges in the joints and muscles, and causes all the trouble.

The only way to overcome this, is to make your kidneys work properly. You can easily and surely do this by taking a little Croxone, which never fails to act promptly.

Croxone not only cleans out the clogged up kidneys, strengthens them and makes them active, but it neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous waste substances, and uric acid, that scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism, so the kidneys can filter it from the blood and drive it out of the system.

Croxone is believed to be the most remarkable preparation ever known for the prompt relief and cure of rheumatism, kidney troubles, and bladder disorders. It is entirely different from other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. Relief follows the first few doses, and you will be surprised how quickly stiff, swollen joints, and muscles, rheumatic pains, and all such misery ends.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle, and every druggist recommends and sells it on a positive money-back guarantee. Three doses a day, for a few days, is often all that is ever needed to overcome the worst backache or most annoying urinary disorders.

A Consumptive Cough.

A cough that bothers you continually is one of the danger signals which warns of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stops the cough, loosens the chest, banish fever and let you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives you prompt relief. Mrs. A. F. Mertz, of Glen Ellyn, Iowa, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six weeks' doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best medicine for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50c. & $1.00. All druggists, by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. P. D. First Things

The first wireless message sent from a ship at sea was dispatched from the American liner St. Paul to the Needles fourteen years ago today, Nov. 15, 1909. The vessel was then 66 miles from the land station. The wireless was first used in saving lives early in 1909, when Jack Binns sent out his memorable call for help from the stricken White Star liner Republic, after her collision with the Florida off Nantucket. Later in the same year help summoned by wireless resulted in the rescue of 159 people from the steamer Ohio off the coast of Alaska. After that hardly a month passed without the wireless demonstrating its utility by the saving of human lives. The Canadian government steamer Stanley was warned of the presence of icebergs by a message from the Grenfell station on the Labrador coast, and had been barely brought to when a berg was sighted in the fog. The Canadian cruiser Niobe, which went on the rocks off Cape Sable in 1911, also summoned help by wireless. The Titanic disaster and the burning of the Volturno afford more recent examples of the beneficence of Marconi's great invention.

Editor C. L. H. Long read an order to subordinate lodges from the office of the grand chancellor, Knights of Pythias, urging all members of the order to lend aid to the school survey day movement. The communication was read by Mr. Long at request of Roland Lodge, K. of P., as an evidence of the interest of the order in the welfare of the public school system of Ohio.

Music was furnished by the high school orchestra, under the direction of Prof. C. W. Klump, before the opening of the speaking program, and in course of the program, Mrs. C. W. Miller gave a delightful vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Florence King at the piano.

The meeting was well attended by parents and teachers of the Newark schools, and it is believed its purpose was accomplished, by starting a general interest in the educational work in the community.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel backache or bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eating of meat must thus be the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels, removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's system, take about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

CURES BARBERS ITCH PROMPTLY

When All Else Fails Goodhair Soap Cures Barbers' Itch.

"Will you kindly send me a cake of your celebrated 'Goodhair' soap, for which I am enclosing a check, which I am sending to Dayton for the soap, as I have been unable to locate your products in any store in this city, and cannot do without it at any cost. I spent about $100.00 several years ago, trying to remedy 'barbers' itch.' Finally, as a last resort, I was persuaded to use your soap, which brought immediate results, at the small price thereof. I have recommended 'Goodhair' to all my friends as 'best ever' for shampooing and the skin diseases, but they also seemed to be unable to secure it here. Just gave the last cake away today to a friend, one of the many unfortunates who could not locate the product. Yours respectfully, WILFRED D. CALAHAN, 1492 Broadway, N. Y. City, Suite 215.

"Answering your inquiry of last instant, beg leave to state that I saw the young man afflicted with barbers' itch, and his face has all healed up; got relief from the first application of Goodhair Soap, and has not used anything else since commencing on the soap."

Yours truly, WM. M. MELVILLE, Lima, Ohio. If your druggist will not supply you with Goodhair Soap send 25c. to Goodhair Remedy Co., Newark, Ohio. Sample on request.

NO HOPE

him to be exerting every energy to take Chihuahua.

Leaving a small force of men there he took 1000 of his troops on board the train which reached Juarez at the time the federal troops were expected. Not once was he challenged.

Under cover of darkness the rebels surrounded the town save the river front, that next to the American border, and concerted attack was made with the artillery doing much of the work. The federal forces were so completely demoralized by the attack that they offered no serious resistance.

Colonel Cano, spokesman for the rebels, told the Associated Press correspondent today that he had no idea of the number killed and wounded on both sides. He said he did not believe the loss was heavy.

Just before daylight this morning Lieutenant Carlos Valdesquez Mendez of the Mexican federal artillery in Juarez, a prisoner in the hands of the rebels, made a dash across one of the international bridges for El Paso and liberty. There was a fusillade of shots from the rebel guards and bullets fell among the United States soldiers on the American side of the river.

American soldiers rushed toward the river as if to return the fire and the rebel officer in command threw up his hands as a signal that the firing had ceased and immediately sent an apology.

Major R. E. Michie, commanding the American troops, sent Deputy United States Marshal Charles Moore over the bridge to tell the rebel officer that under no circumstances were his men to shoot toward American territory. The lieutenant having succeeded in reaching American soil fell at the feet of the American officers wounded in the fog. He was sent to the El Paso police station.

Associated Press Telegram.—El Paso, Texas, Nov. 15.—Juarez, the Mexican town across the border, was attacked early today by a force of rebels from Sonora. The rebel troops deployed about the town under cover of darkness and attacked it from several sides. At 3 o'clock this morning they had taken possession of the customs house. It appeared at that hour as though the rebels were victorious as the firing began to abate and seemed to be only in the outskirts. Refugees crossing the bridge at 3:20 o'clock declared the attack was a complete surprise.

Major R. E. Michie, adjutant to Gen. Hugh L. Scott, commanding the United States troops on border patrol here, immediately took command of the United States troops when fighting began. He threw out patrols to keep people of El Paso back of the danger line. Streets were hurried from the barns to Fort Bliss to bring additional soldiers to the border. Among these was the Fifteenth cavalry, which arrived here yesterday from Fort Meyer, Va., and left for north Kansas, and Fort Sheridan, Ills.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning, telephone messages to the military headquarters in Juarez from El Paso, brought the information from the rebel officer who answered the telephone that the rebels were in complete control of the town, and that Sanchez Villa was in command of the attacking party. He stated that 1000 rebels were in command. Up to this time, it was believed that the attack was being made by a small band of rebels, who had been enroute from Sonora to reinforce Villa in his unsuccessful attack on Chihuahua last week.

A telephone message from the night watchman at the Mexican Northwestern railroad in Juarez at 3:20 this morning, said the town was apparently quiet.

United States troops refused to allow newspaper men or others to cross the international bridge into Juarez as long as there was firing. One bullet broke a hole in the White House window in the heart of El Paso at 2:35 this morning. The White House is but a half block from the postoffice on Pioneer Plaza, near all the hotels. The plaza was full of people when the bullet struck the big plate glass and broke it. The rebels under Villa are said to have entered Juarez in a train supposed to have been filled with federal troops. They succeeded in detaining and deploying about the town without discovery until they opened fire upon the federal garrison.

Associated Press Telegram.—El Paso, Texas, Nov. 15.—Three Americans were killed in Juarez during the fighting incident to the capture of the city by rebels early today. At 7 o'clock fighting was resumed near the Juarez race track. General Francisco Castro, commander of the federal garrison was missing. He was not among the killed or wounded and it was believed he has escaped from the city.

One of the three Americans killed was Charles Sargason an automobile man of El Paso. He was killed in his car. Two other Americans who have not been identified, were killed in a raid on a gambling house. A band of 40 men supposed to be rebels, held up the gambling. Fighting was resumed at 7 o'clock near the Juarez race track but the federal forces were in flight.

Major Marem, commanding the rebel detachment guarding the international bridge placed the total number killed in Juarez at 21, 17 federal and four constitutionalists.

Three thousand rebels took part in the capture. A troop train was made ready to be sent to El Paso in the 2000 or more constitutionalists who stopped there.

CULIACAN HAS FALLEN INTO REBEL HANDS

Associated Press Telegram.—Nogales, Sonora, Nov. 15.—In the eyes of all Mexicans on this side of the line, the capture of Culiacan, capital of Sinaloa, yesterday, welded a new commonwealth within Mexico, a confederacy which will rapidly expand if the constitutionalists arrange to fight their way southward and eastward toward Mexico City and the Gulf of Mexico.

Those Mexicans holding contrary beliefs generally are on the other side of the line, out of dangerous proximity to the popular opinion. Culiacan was the last capital of the northern and Pacific states of Mexico to fall to the rebel army. The constitutionalists now control a wedge of Mexico, including the country's three largest states, Sonora, Sinaloa and Durango, with the territory of Tamaulipas. The capital of all, for the time being, at least, is the little "doble" village across the street from the United States, with its aduana, or custom house, for a national government headquarters.

The taking of Culiacan opened the telegraph line between that city and the ad interim capital. It also opened 90 miles of railroad with the exception of the Sinaloa seaport of Mazatlan, is the only important northwestern city remaining in the hands of Huerta's forces.

Telegraphic communication also was opened with Torreon, on the central lines of the national railway below Chihuahua city, which is now invested by Pancho Villa's army. Reports from the constitutionalist commanders operating south, east and west led Carranza and his lieutenant to declare today that the revolutionists control half the area of Mexico.

HUERTA AT LAST RECOGNIZES THAT U. S. IS IN EARNEST

Associated Press Telegram.—Washington, Nov. 15.—Washington today awaited dispatches from Charge d'Affaires Shaugnessy as to the effect of instructions sent him late last night by Secretary Bryan, informing counselors of Huerta, who have intimated an intention to open negotiations upon just what conditions the United States would assent to further parleys.

As the new Mexican congress which the United States has refused to recognize as legally chosen was to be conveyed by official order late today, it was expected here that definite news of the situation would materialize.

Officials are confident that Huerta now realizes not only that the United States is in earnest in its intention to oust him and may accomplish his elimination by lifting the embargo on arms, but also that Great Britain as well as the other foreign powers, have assumed more than a passive attitude of acquiescence in the American policy. The fact that Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico is communicating to Huerta intimation of a strong factor that he must eliminate himself in accordance with the American contention is said to be the development upon which the situation has turned with the last two days. Refusal to resign or prevent the new congress from complicating the situation by giving oil concessions this government would consider illegal might mean that the American government would go forward in its policy of moral in supporting the Constitutionalists. The capture of Juarez by Constitutionalists, an important port through which munitions of war might be passed for a vigorous campaign on Chihuahua and the larger states to the south is expected to have considerable effect in Mexico City.

The capture of Juarez by Madero, in his rebellion against Diaz was the turning point which brought the Diaz regime to terms and forced the flight of the president.

President Wilson went to the golf links early today and Secretary of State Bryan went to the state department early to read dispatches from the Mexican capital.

Deny Smuggling Charge.

Associated Press Telegram.—Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 15.—Investigation here failed to disclose any foundation for the reports from Mexico City that large quantities of arms and ammunition have been allowed to cross the border in this vicinity. There has been no relaxation of the customs duties, which is still drawn so close that it would be impossible to smuggle field pieces or even small arms and cartridges in any considerable quantity.

TWO NEGROES EACH RECEIVED TWENTY LASHES

Wilmington, Nov. 15.—Willie Harrison and John Brown, two young negroes, who were convicted of breaking and entering a store with intent to commit robbery, were whipped with twenty lashes each at the whipping post at the Newcastle county workhouse today. They had been sentenced to thirty days and received twenty lashes Saturday.

The whipping post attracted attention today to the whipping and the attendance of a large crowd was witnessed. Brown was hit out and the twenty lashes added to his back by Warden Crawford, after which Brown received his second flogging. The two men were then flogged on the back. Warden Crawford told reporters he had never seen such a crowd since the whipping post had been established at the workhouse.

CLEVELAND BANK WILL TEST LAW

Associated Press Telegram.—Columbus, Nov. 15.—The Garfield Savings Bank company, Cleveland, notified Superintendent E. W. Lattanner of the state banking department today that it will enter suit soon to test the constitutionality of the law passed by the last general assembly assessing each state bank one-seventy-fifth of one per cent. of its resources over $100,000 for the maintenance of the banking department. The suit sent a check for $7805, in payment of this fee under protest, to avoid paying the penalty of $100 a day for non-payment after November 15. Superintendent Lattanner declared he will recommend in his annual report that the assessment be reduced from one seventy-fifth to one one-hundredth per cent., since the department is accumulating more funds than it is using. He said no other banks in the state except several in Cleveland have objected to the law.

FEDERAL LEAGUE CLUB OWNERS IN MEETING AT CHICAGO

Associated Press Telegram.—Chicago, Nov. 15.—Club owners of the Federal league began their annual meeting here today to make plans for the 1914 season. It was expected that a new president would be elected and announcement made of the number of baseball players the independent organization has secured from the big leagues. The cities making up the league, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cleveland, Baltimore, Indianapolis, Pittsburgh, Buffalo and Chicago, were represented.

CRAWFORD AT PEN.—Associated Press Telegram.—Columbus, Nov. 15.—Dr. Daniel H. Crawford, Zanesville, was received at the penitentiary today to serve an indeterminate term for performing an illegal operation.

POPE RECEIVES U. S. NAVAL MEN

Associated Press Telegram.—Rome, Nov. 15.—The Pope today received at the Vatican the officers and bluejackets of the United States warships now visiting European ports. The officers were in civilian clothes, as their visit to the Pope was in their private capacity. The sailors were in uniform.

The party was conducted by Mr. Thomas F. Kennedy, rector of the American college in Rome; Chaplain William H. Rooney of the battleship Utah and Chaplain Curtis H. Dickens of the battleship Florida. Rear Admirals Charles J. Badger, Cameron Mott, Winslow and Frank E. Beatty and Captain William J. Maxwell were introduced by Mr. Kennedy. As they proceeded into the Pope's private library, the Swiss and Noble guards rendered the military honors.

The Pope expressed his great satisfaction at being able to greet the American sailors.

Our Popular President

President Wilson said a good thing when he declared that, if he spent his time trying to be re-elected, he would not deserve to be re-elected. The general proposition has often been stated, and the president, of course, makes no claim to having discovered a new truth. The novelty lies in the fact that it is not often that a man in office makes such a comment about himself. President Wilson not only makes it, but acts it. Few of the things done by him since he became president, a little more than eight months ago, can be considered, even by his enemies, to have been prompted by selfish ambition. He has had his ideas of government and he has bent all his energies to make them effective, generally, with marvelous success. If he continues as he has begun, it will be said of him, at the close of his term, that he did what he honestly believed was for the best interest of the country. Like other men, he is fallible, but he is doing his best. As far as zeal for

Consolidation of Agricultural Departments

As a direct result of Governor Cox's work in obtaining a consolidation of the eight state agricultural departments and putting the work of all under a single head—the agricultural commission—fifty thousand farmers who have not usually had the benefit of farmers' institutes will be reached this year. The work of the lecturers is to be supplemented by that of field men from the State Experiment Station at Wooster. The plan will enable the state to reach into communities that have not hitherto had institutes and to give the established ones better service.

President A. P. Sandies of the agricultural commission says the plan would increase the efficiency by fully 25 per cent. without additional cost.

Another plan that is contemplated proposes a large increase in the efficiency of the agricultural department of the Ohio State University. The commissioner is having the fair grounds at the state school set for winter courses in agriculture and will be able to accommodate many hundreds of additional students.

Unprecedented results, a record-breaking treasury balance, every pre-election promise redeemed and not a single dollar of graft. That's the record of the Democratic state administration in Ohio. Where is there a flaw in that grand record?

Governor James M. Cox has given Ohio the most prosperous administration in the history of the commonwealth.

Public Service is concerned, he is unimpaired, and thus far his wisdom has not been seriously impugned.—Columbus Dispatch.

The above is a sample of the expressions of the high regard for President Wilson that are heard everywhere over the entire country. On the railroad trains, in hotels and public places of every character, there are evidences of sentiment uniformly expressed by men of all political shades of belief showing the high esteem in which President Wilson is held today by the American people.

When compared with political conditions in this country during all its past history the present outpouring of sentiment in behalf of Woodrow Wilson is marvelous.

Today Woodrow Wilson would be elected by a larger popular majority than has been cast for any Presidential candidate since the formation of political parties in this country.

Board of Trade Jr.

(Columbus Evening Dispatch.)
Fifty-one young men of Newark, Ohio, under the lead of Professor H. J. Dickerson, of the high school there, have organized what is called a Junior Board of Trade. The purpose is to hold meetings regularly and discuss the various questions of civic interest, just as the real board of trade does, and so familiarize the members with the business of the city and the efforts that are made to make there a better city. Any young man under twenty-one years of age is eligible to membership, and the effort is to be to make the organization as large and representative as possible.

There is in this movement a fine idea of training the boys to good citizenship. It will inform them, as few other things will, of what is going on in their city and of the business which they will one day have to handle in connection with it. It ought to make them sympathetic, helpful and appreciative of all that is done to promote the city's interests and so should materially assist in conserving for the common good all that is done for good in this. A more practical course in civics could hardly be suggested.

The results for 1913 are $10,000, which a $10,000 paper has been ever before taken in by the state. And there was not a single instance of the state corporation taxes which have been the money in the state's treasury did not contribute to the state's income.

Under the former administration the treasury balance at Columbus was $10,000. And the state's treasury balance has not been so high since.

Gov. Carranza says he could be out of office in 30 days if he could get the state's treasury balance to $10,000. This is a prevailing bugaboo, but it is a very old story. The situation is a record.

The senate of New Hampshire have not yet organized a new session to overturn the state government. It is that state possible the loss of the state.

A full state treasury and unprecedented prosperity form the cry of the winning battle cry for a year. It can't be beaten.

"There's a Reason"

"The Best Society"
(Written for the Advocate by Sylvanus Stall, D. D.)

There is something which many people call "Society." In almost every community there is what the public dominates the "Best Society." Sometimes the people who compose it are called the "leaders in society," the "holier aristocrats," the "upper ten," the "four hundred." It is sometimes an exclusive set, and because it is exclusive, many people otherwise informed who do not understand what this "best society" really is, desire to get into it and become a member of it. They are like the flies that are struck by a net with a savory smell, poor fellows, they do not know that the thing they crave is the thing that ruins them.

Sometimes this "Society" is spoken of as being composed of "the best people." That does not mean that they are righteous, that they are pure and clean, or even outwardly moral in their conduct. The fact is that the "best society" may be no other than the worst society in the community in which its members reside. The people who compose it may be wealthy, may be thought cultured, may even be members of some "fashionable church," but the fact is, that the influence of that "best society" is often harmful to the last degree.

This "best society" is often composed of the leaders in every extreme, extravagant and vulgar fashion. When a dance more obscene than the rest is devised, they are the first to welcome and adopt it. If the saloon invents a new form of evil and introduces it into the community, degraded and prostitute women, and degraded men, moving up and down among the tables only half clad, exciting the basest passions, and by their very bearing inviting the vilest suggestions and engagements for the most immoral purposes—I say, if the saloon introduces a thing of this kind, and calls it a "cabaret," then those people who call themselves the "best society" introduce a cabaret, and appear in costumes which simulate the costumes of the girls in the real cabaret, and whose appearance cannot do other than excite in Morticians.

Long ago, when I departed from this earth to face his Maker, then his loved ones, broken-hearted, called the village undertaker; now when men in that condition, dead as death can ever make him, people summon the mortician to enshrine and undertake him. When my beard begins to harbor wrens and robins, great and lesser, I consult the nearest barber, not a tinsorial professor. When I have some news that other printed be, to stir men's wonder, I ring up a good reporter, not a journalist, for that. When the surgeon and physician do their worst and leave me dying, will murmur, "No mortician round my carves shall come prying! When I'm carried to God's Acre, see the doctors are conducted, a good old undertaker on old-fashioned lines constructed!" How I hate these fancy handles men adopt to soothe their vitals; they are but dull-witted vandals who reject the honored titles. He is safest, sanest, smartest, who eschews all sounding lingo; do not claim to be an "artist" if you're grooming mules, by jingo!

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DURN.

Washington, Nov. 15.—[Special.]—The "I told you so brigade," which includes a large number of persons who predicted that the financial legislation could not be passed in the special session, are pointing to their predictions, with now and then one who chirrups with the assertion that he predicted the bill would not be reported during the special session.

The attitude of senators whom President Wilson drove unwillingly into currency legislation after they had spent so much time on the tariff was a guarantee that the currency bill would be delayed. The methods of delay are not such that any one can say deliberate intention to prevent action has been the object, yet when we recollect that the bill has been before the committee since Sept. 18 it would appear that no effort to hurry its consideration is evident.

The "Open Door" Caucus.

The caucus with the "open door" may be a feature of future congressional action, but it is not to be expected that men of a party with real differences to settle are going to open their discussions to the public. There may be so called open caucuses, but they will be perfunctory affairs. The real differences will be settled in private conference.

Much of the legislation is framed by private conferences. In many cases meetings are held at the residences of senators and representatives in order to insure more privacy. The call for the "open caucuses" always sounds well, but majority parties with many divergent views to adjust are apt to compose them in private conferences in quiet places.

Money Power Beat Clark.

Half a dozen different things served to prevent Champ Clark from being president. It was Phil Campbell of Kansas who put in the Record recently an outside speech in which the statement was made that when Champ Clark spoke against the Aldrich currency bill a prominent banker was heard to say, "That puts Champ Clark out of the race." And yet we all have an idea that the bankers did not have much to do with the Bryan speech, which was the real cause of Champ's defeat. And what reason had the bankers to prefer Wilson to Clark? As events have progressed it has been found that these two statesmen do not differ materially upon the main questions before the country.

Money and Partisanship.

Two Democratic members of the banking and currency committee asserted that they had seen no evidence on the part of the Republicans to make the currency bill a party measure or to play politics in its consideration, and yet the bill was made a measure of Democratic caucus consideration in spite of those declarations. But there was this difference: While the Republicans had not shown partisanship, they had shown opposition to some of the cherished features of the administration bill. Party lines were drawn between the president and the Republicans, with two or three Democrats inclined to side with the Republicans; hence the caucus.

Dead Letter Law.

During the last years of the Roosevelt administration the smoke law for Washington was enforced rigidly. Since he went out of office there has been scarcely a prosecution under that law, and columns of black smoke go up from factory, hotel, apartment house and even private residences. Washington has forgotten that it has a strong anti-smoke law.

Bacon's Way.

It often happens that when a senator is talking a group of senators elsewhere will be telling stories and enjoying jokes and creating a great deal of confusion. Senator Bacon always stops in the midst of what he is saying and waits until the silence becomes painful. In that way he secures a little order so that he can be heard at least by the stenographers.

Mann Making Up.

If Jim Mann has enjoyed the administration by throwing javelins from the floor of the house he has at least made up for it in the manner in which he has helped to make the White House wedding a success. He has made it plain that politics has nothing to do with love's young dream.

The social climber sometimes goes abroad to try a foreign climate.

"STARVING TO DEATH"

Was Mrs. Bell, of Florida, When She Began Taking Peruna

"Yes, I was starving to death," said Mrs. Emma Bell, of Fort Pierce, Florida, Box 204, "when I began to take Peruna. I could not eat anything. If I swallowed anything it soured on my stomach. My stomach was very much swollen. My bowels acted as if I had acute dysentery. I was in great distress and pain. Three doctors had been employed, but gave me no relief. I was continually growing worse.

I Was in Despair.

"In my despair I caught at every straw. Picking up a newspaper I saw some account of Peruna. There was a testimonial from a woman who had been troubled much like myself. I concluded to try Peruna.

I Wrote to Dr. Hartman.

"At the same time I wrote to Dr. Hartman. He pronounced my case catarrh of the stomach and bowels. I soon began taking Peruna. At once I began to improve. After taking half a bottle my stomach was so improved that I could eat some."

I Began to Recover.

Then this good housewife goes on to narrate in detail her rapid improvement and final recovery. She said, "After taking two bottles of Peruna I was strong enough to stand up to wash the dishes." When she began taking Peruna she weighed 102 pounds. After she had taken five bottles of Peruna she weighed 122 pounds. She concludes by saying that she is well.

It Was Twelve Years Ago.

The letter from which the above quotations were made was received January 29, 1901. In a later letter, written September 11, 1904, she says, "I sing the praises of Peruna far and near. It is used a great deal in our vicinity. This seems to be a bad place for catarrh." We have received letters from her since. The last time we heard from her, December 1912, she was still a friend of Peruna.

For other testimonials on catarrh of the stomach, see "Mills of Life," sent free. Address Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

The stomach and bowels are lined with a mucous membrane. They are therefore subject to catarrh, the same as the nose and throat. Catarrh of the stomach and bowels will derange the functions of these organs. The stomach can no longer digest food. The food lying in the stomach, even for a short time without digestion, immediately sours. The souring produces gas and irritation.

Food Stagnates in the Stomach.

A portion of the undigested meal is absorbed into the system by the blood vessels of the stomach. This poisons the whole system, producing a condition now known as auto-intoxication; self poisoning. The fermenting, irritating mass, as it passes down into the bowels irritates the bowels, producing sometimes a chronic diarrhea, sometimes producing the very opposite, constipation.

The average dyspepsia medicine helps to artificially digest the food. Even when such medicine does its work it is only temporary. A permanent relief can only be expected when the catarrh is overcome.

Symptoms of Catarrh of the Stomach.

The symptoms of catarrh of the stomach are: First, heartburn. Second, food rises in throat after meals. Third, sour stomach. Fourth, heavy feeling after eating. Fifth, stomach bloated, belching of gas. Sixth, palpitation of heart. Seventh, poor digestion, have dyspepsia. Eighth, tongue coated light brown. Ninth, tenderness over pit of stomach. Tenth, cannot bear tight clothes around waist.

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

With Ohio Club Women

Conducted by Mrs. Charles S. Rockhill, Chairman of the Publicity Department of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs

Women Are Eligible to

Appointments on Public Boards. The only amendment carried was the woman's amendment. This joyful bit of news was what the club women all over the state were told Wednesday after election returns were all in.

This is the most important piece of legislation ever carried by the club women of Ohio, for to their united will directed and persistent efforts to properly bring the matter to the attention of the voters of the state, is largely due the splendid vote the amendment received. The greatness of this victory, and of all that it means, has as yet scarcely been realized, and because of it, women of ability will be appointed to serve on boards where their advice and suggestions will help to change many conditions now deplorable. That a woman will be in charge of all institutions where the welfare of children and women is concerned. That women physicians will be appointed in all state hospitals. That the Board of State Charities and Corrections will have women on that board. That woman's voice and woman's influence will be potent for good in many places not before open to her. It is a magnificent victory for the women in Ohio and for the organized effort which made it possible; for the State Federation and its Executive Board and of the members at large who gave unselfishly of time, energy and money to carry this amendment. A splendid vindication of the principle underlying the effort and another proof that the electors of Ohio believe women should be given an opportunity to help care for unfortunate women and children, and that an appeal to their inherent manhood will not be in vain. It is a powerful argument in favor of well directed, concerted work by an organization, whose members are determined to carry their point.

We rejoice in our victory and cheerfully accept this new duty for with power and influence comes the consequent responsibility.

The Ohio School Survey.

In accordance with the proclamation of the Governor of Ohio, November 14th was set aside as School Survey Day, and women's clubs of the State were earnestly requested in making it a success and in "helping to have" a light in every school house in the state on the evening of November 14th.

This survey day is but to awaken the interest of the public to the work of the Ohio School Survey of the rural schools which is being made by the state. A wonderfully fine piece of work, and most worthy of the interest and support of the club women of the State Federation. It is suggested that clubs appoint a school survey committee to follow the work of the Commission appointed by Governor Cox for this purpose, and to cooperate whenever possible.

The Director of the Survey requests that every club send a delegate to the Educational Congress to be held in Columbus, December 5th and 6th. This meeting will be addressed by educators of national reputation and will be worth the time and effort of any one to attend these meetings. Any club desiring information and literature regarding this survey can obtain same by addressing Dr. Horace L. Brittain, Director of Ohio School Survey, Columbus, O.

The new kind of rural school, predicts Herbert Quick in Good Housekeeping, will be the laboratory of the neighborhood. It will test goods for adulterations, genuineness and viability. It will test milk. It will test cows for tuberculosis. It will design sanitary measures for the homes and furnish plans for farm buildings. It will try out new varieties of plants and animals. It will calculate balanced rations for the neighborhood live stock. It will keep the accounts of the farms, and by comparison of results will determine what crop is most profitable. It will teach sewing, cooking, designing of garments, service of meals, housekeeping in general.

Woman's Centennial Association Only Active Historical Club in Federation. The Woman's Centennial Association of Marietta, is a most interesting society and which has for its purpose the gathering and preserving of historical data of the State of Ohio. It was organized in 1886 to commemorate the centennial of the famous ordinance of 1787, dealing with the Federation of the Northwest Territory.

The Fortnightly Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. C. F. Martin in Western avenue Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon sped quickly with the amusement of the club and late in the afternoon all were invited to the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served at one large table, the color scheme green and white being carried out. The following ladies were present:

ritory—and to assist in the celebration of that Centennial held in 1887. The organization was afterward made a permanent one, and has in the last twenty-five years gathered together a large and valuable collection of relics. This is the only active historical club in the Ohio Federation and their work, unlike that of many other clubs, is making places where history has been made, rather than making history. It is eminently fitting that quaint Marietta, Ohio's oldest city should have a group of patriotic women banded together to help preserve Ohio's heritage of glory.

New York Federation.

Referring to our recent experience with the teachers of our city schools, the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs has passed a resolution rebuking the board of education for unfair discrimination against women teachers. Disregarding a request from the Federation that women be appointed to some of the vacant principalships, especially in girls' schools, the board had filled all places with men.

The Federation has now voted to ask Mayor Kline that at least half of the vacancies on the board of education this fall be filled by women, and it also asks that women be made eligible as directors of the municipal park playgrounds.

Club Notes.

The placing of a matron on all through trains and the distribution of information regarding dangers to girls traveling alone is one of the subjects to be taken up in earnest by the club women of St. Paul, Minn., this season. In view of the large number of girls who disappear each year it is suggested that all factories, offices and places of business be placarded with warnings so that girls may protect themselves against white slave agents. The employment of matrons on trains is expected to serve the same purpose.

Woman's part in the commercial life of Chicago was shown to the general public recently by an exhibit and congress of trade and education held by the Woman's Association of Commerce at the Congress Hotel. There are about 15,000 women in Chicago who act as managers of business and 5,000 who exclusively own their plant. Many of these exhibited their work or were represented in the congress. Miss Florence King, a woman of great ability, is president of the association.

Speculators in foodstuffs who increase the cost of living by their tactics will possibly have to reckon with the president of the United States unless they amend their ways. The Congress of Women's clubs of Western Pennsylvania, representing 8,000 women, recently passed resolutions against gambling in food products and asked President Wilson to give the matter his attention. About $1,000 has been raised for an art gallery by the Woman's Club of Des Moines, Ia., the balance of the necessary $25,000 for the building will probably be secured by an extension of the present system of selling bonds.

Mr. Knowlton formerly resided in Newark being employed at the Frank Hall pharmacy. Mr. Knowlton is in the drug business in Cambridge Springs.

A postal card from Guy Miller, son of Samuel G. Miller who dropped dead in Tenth street last Tuesday morning while on his way to work at the Wyeth factory, was received by his brother, Dr. Edwin Miller, 38 Union street, Saturday morning, this being the first information the family has had by which he could be reached with a telegram announcing his father's death.

His card stated that he had located at Jacksonville, Fla., and that he had gone to work as an electrician in the city shops in that city. Two messages, one over each telephone company having service at Jacksonville, were forwarded at once, telling him of his father's death and urging him to return for the funeral. Guy Miller left Newark November 5, six days before his father's death. No word was received from him and telegrams sent after his father died, remained undelivered.

Arrangements had about been completed for funeral services for Mr. Miller to be held Sunday, but these plans will be changed and the services will be held Monday or Tuesday of next week. Definite arrangements will not be made until after word has been received from Guy Miller.

CITY SETTLES WITH HARRIS ON CONTRACT

Gave $75 for Memorials 25 Dead Heroes From Livery Barn Fire —
—Judge Court News.

In the case of Charles H. Harris vs. City of Newark, which had been assigned for trial to the court and jury, a judgment of settlement was entered. In this case, the plaintiff brought suit to recover on a contract made with the Health Officer to remove some 30 dead horses from the scene of the fire at Tad McDonald's livery barn, which was burned in this city some time ago. A judgment for plaintiff was entered in the sum of $75 and costs.

The court heard the case of Hannah R. Welch vs. Anthony Fitzwater, et al., being a suit brought to set aside a deed for real estate in this city. After hearing the testimony and arguments of counsel, the court took the case under advisement.

William E. Swartz vs. B. and O. R. Co., leave given to file reply instantly.

2500 PAROLED BOYS ARE FREED BY NEW ORDER

Columbus, Nov. 15. — More than 2500 white and colored boys are affected by an order issued by the state board of administration yesterday, which restores absolute freedom to all boys who have been on parole from the Lancaster Industrial School for one year or more, providing their records are clear.

The number now on parole is more than 3000, and, it was estimated yesterday by the board, fully 2500 of these have been on parole for a year and, therefore, are eligible to receive benefit from the general order, which becomes effective today.

Heretofore all boys paroled from the institution were not given absolute freedom until they were 21 years old. They were compelled to furnish monthly reports of their conduct and, if they did not live up to the rules prescribed by the board of administration, they were returned to the institution. Now they will be compelled to remain on good behavior only a year after being paroled in order to secure absolute freedom. The only way in which they may be returned will be through commitment by a court for an offense.

This action of the board was prompted by the magnitude of the task in keeping track of paroled boys. It is said to be a sufficient task for the superintendent to look after them for a year, instead of in many instances for eight and ten years.

FIRE DISCOVERED IN ULIDIA HOLD, TURNS BOAT BACK

Savannah Ga., Nov. 15.—The British steamship Ulidia, Captain McCannan, clearing yesterday for Rotterdam with a cargo of cotton and merchandise, put back to port this morning on fire.

When forty-five miles from Tientsin the fire was discovered in No. 4 hold by the first officer. The hatches were lifted but roaring flames drove back the crew, and as the ship was clamped down again while the slow and heavily laden freighter turned about and labored back to port. When she reached here her decks were so hot the master's wife had been driven from the cabin.

Fire tugs began forcing streams into the holds and the fire under control before noon. The Ulidia is owned by Joseph Fisher and Sons of Newry, Ireland. She had a cargo of cotton and inters valued at $175,000, covered by insurance.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try This! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and Brush It Through Your Hair, Taking One Strand at a Time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home, is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning, all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

FILES $10,000 SUIT AGAINST THE PENNSY

Suit against the P. C. C. and St. L. railway company for $10,000 has been filed in common pleas court by Wm. Haines, administrator of the estate of Clara M. Dixon, who met death at the High street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad in Pataskala April 21, 1913.

The petition filed by Attorneys Kibler & Kibler alleges that the railway company was guilty of neglect in that its engine and one car was traveling sixty miles an hour over the crossing, that the locomotive did not whistle or sound any warning, and that the view of the crossing was totally obscured in direction of the approaching train by a cut of cars and a warehouse.

The decedent was crossing the track in a carriage and was struck by the train and instantly killed.

SUFFRAGISTS ARE BECOMING ACTIVE AT THE CAPITAL

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Nov. 15.—Suffragist sympathizers swooped down on historic Lafayette Park and the vicinity of the White House and state, war and navy offices before daylight today, armed with quantities of chalk and covered sidewalks and street pavements with "votes for women."

One immense legend extending over a good portion of the flagging in front of the White House said:

"Come to Sunday's meeting, Inez Milholland speaker."

It was the nearest approach to militancy the National Capital had seen in the suffrage campaign.

A Dainty Luncheon for a Debutante.

Debutante affairs are very much to the fore just now, and a very pretty function for a "bud" is a butterfly luncheon.

If the hostess is skillful with her brush, she can paint a gay butterfly on her cards of invitation, or she can send her notes on some of the pretty paper butterflies to be found in the shops.

The decorations for the table should of course carry out the butterfly idea. Pretty butterflies made of paper can be used for the centrepieces, or dotted about the table with and hover over the table. They can also be attached to various other articles about the room, and if done carefully with thin wire, and especially if flowers are arranged in connection with them, a very charming effect can be secured. Or flowers can be formed into a butterfly design, in any of the gorgeous colorings of the real insect, for a centrepiece. For place-cards, paper butterflies, or cards painted in butterfly designs, would be appropriate.

For favors, lay at each place a cocoon of gray paper which, when opened, discloses a folded butterfly. A pin should be included in the case, so that the little winged bit of brightness can be fastened in the hair.

After the luncheon is over, a tray is handed about by the hostess containing sheets of different colored tissue paper, scissors, needles and thread. Each guest selects what she thinks she will need to make a butterfly cap, apron, or other little article of dress. Ten minutes is then allowed for the merry butterfly-making, and tongues are apt to fly as fast as fair fingers as the work proceeds. If desired, a prize can be given for the prettiest piece of handiwork.

If the affair is given in the evening, and most guests are present, they can make the butterflies, and a prize be given for the best. Or, the girls can retire to separate room to make them, number their work, and then the men find their partners for refreshments or games by choosing the numbers.

The entertainment can be varied in many ways, but the butterfly idea is a very good one to work upon for a debutante affair, for it is so typical of the life ahead of the one just stepping over the threshold of the social world.

Rosebuds, too, are very appropriate and the idea can be carried out in the same way for decorations, and the tissue paper performance that comes later can evolve paper rosebuds; though if the hostess doesn't mind the expense and can afford ribbon, ribbon flowers are much daintier and far more useful.

The Lodges

L. O. O. F. Olive Branch lodge No. 34, met in regular session Tuesday evening. Two candidates were elected to membership. Inquiring after the sick, Noble Grand reported that Bro. Thomas Lippincott was growing weaker with not much chance of his getting any better. On next Tuesday night, Nov. 18, the initiatory degree will be conferred on several candidates. All members are urged to be present to assist in the work. It will also be first nomination night.

NEWARK LODGE NO. 12, K. OF P. Last Friday night the team from Newark lodge and a number of Knights went to Pataskala and conferred the Knight rank upon several Esquires, returning on the Pennsylvania midnight train which stopped for them at Pataskala through the courtesy of the local agent here. All reported as having a very enjoyable evening and appreciated the hospitality of Pataskala lodge very much.

The booster committee reports progress in their campaign and are "starting the ball rolling" and results will soon follow. A meeting of the booster committee will be held next Sunday afternoon in the lodge room at 1:30 sharp and every member is expected and urged to be present.

Next Thursday night the Esquire rank will be conferred upon a number of Pages. Bro. B. O. Horton was appointed "camping manager" for the present "camping" and refreshment committee consisting of E. L. Schmidt, B. L. Montgomery and George H. Matzenbach was appointed by the chancellor and have promised to have something on hand next Thursday night.

L. O. O. F. Newark lodge No. 623, met in regular session Monday evening, Nov. 10. On Monday evening, Nov. 17, the second degree will be conferred. This is also first nomination night. We insist that every brother be present who can. The refreshment committee is busy and promises a rare treat on next Monday evening. Do not forget that this is all scheduled for Monday evening, Nov. 17. Let this be an evening long to be remembered.

Do a little personal work, appoint yourself a committee of one to see two or three brothers and get their promise to attend. Let us rally around the banquet table and spend the evening in fraternal sociability. Speak to every brother you meet about this meeting and urge them to attend. All visiting brothers in the city are cordially invited to attend. We earnestly hope that Olive Branch will be well represented. Let this be in the nature of a reunion of the Odd Fellows of our city.

MT. OLIVE ENCAMPMENT, L. O. O. F. Mt. Olive Encampment will confer the patriarchal degree on a class of twelve candidates Thursday evening, Nov. 20. Grand Patriarch Pugh was present at camp Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, which was a special session for degree practice. He will also be present when we confer this degree Nov. 20. Other grand encampment officers will probably be present. This promises to be an evening of great interest to patriarchal Odd Fellows. Let every member come and enjoy the evening.

The subject of a union outing at a lake resort in 1914 by chapters from Ohio, Michigan and western Pennsylvania, was presented and a committee appointed to confer with other chapters on the subject. It is proposed to hold a week's outing some time in August, 1914, on the lakes. The move is on and by attending the meetings you will keep in touch with its progress.

The next meeting coming on Thanksgiving, a short business session will be held after which members are requested to have a friend present and spend the evening socially.

ROLAND LODGE, K. OF P. Roland lodge No. 365, Knights of Pythias, met in regular session on Tuesday evening of this week. The attendance was not anything like it has been, but a good reason is given for this. Right at that time the burglar scare was at its height and it is alleged that some of the boys were afraid of the holdup men. This is denied by many, but nevertheless the excuse is given for what it is worth. Two applications have been received, since our last report two weeks ago. An official letter from Grand Chancellor Hoskins urged all Pythians to take part in the observance of the first annual School Survey Day, Nov. 14. Bro. C. L. H. Long represented Roland lodge at the exercises in honor of this occasion at the high school auditorium last evening. Our annual donation for the Christmas treat for the children of the Ohio Pythian home at Springfield was made at the meeting Tuesday evening. Degree work will begin Nov. 25th.

RASH ON ARMS ITCHED AND BURNED

Especially at Night. At Times Got No Sleep At All. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

400 South Main—Bos. Ave., Chicago, Ill.—I was attacked with a breaking out on the inside of my arms. It was a most rash eruption and it itched and burned, especially at night, so that before I knew it I had made myself sore. I had to wear the most kind of cotton underwear, no woolen at all, because the least thing irritated it and made it much worse. The rash itched and smarted until at times I got no sleep at all.

I had this trouble and took treatments for about one year, but they only gave me relief while taking them. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I got relief right away. I made a good strong lather of Cuticura Soap and washed myself every night and morning, drying myself with a good soft towel, and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In three months I was a well man again. (Signed) J. W. Foley, Nov. 5, 1913.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors was held Thursday night. The members met at 6 o'clock for supper. After this the regular business for the month was transacted. The following members were present: C. C. Metz, C. L. Wyeth, C. L. Flory, E. S. Randolph, H. H. Leist, Harry Scott, W. E. Painter, A. S. Stephan, O. J. Barnes, A. R. Evans, John F. Swisher and F. M. B. Windle. Reports made by the chairman of different committees were very encouraging to the board.

Harry Tinnen of Nelsonville, now acting secretary of the association in that town, spent last Sunday in the city. He dropped in to pay his respects to the Y. M. C. A. "where he got his start."

An idea of how the Y. M. C. A. is looked upon in New York City can be gained by reading the article in Colliers of Nov. 15, entitled "For Youth's Sake."

The past week has witnessed an increased attendance in all gymnasium classes. The records show that the attendance in the gym for the month of October was the largest it has been for the same month in the past four years. The lunch counter has also been well patronized. All men and boys are welcome to bring their friends to the lunch counter.

The following members have been enrolled this week: John Sabau, Sylvester Paur, Kenneth Brubacher, Carl Siegel and Andron Nicu. Two of these have joined the class in English for foreigners.

John Bennett of the B. & O. machine shops who has been taking private lessons at the association under the direction of Prof. W. G. Ginery of the high school, was unable to come for lessons this week on account of being sent to Zanesville to work.

Evenings at the building are given over almost exclusively to work with boys and men who work during the day. There are more than 200 boys and men who work during the day who should avail themselves of the recreation features of the association, during the evening. The fees are small and payments may be made to suit the member.

The first Bible classes of the season will be started next week. The Juniors will meet Tuesday evening, at 6 o'clock for their supper and Bible class, and the Cadets will meet Saturday morning at 9:30.

The Federation of Women's clubs met at the building Monday evening and Mrs. Doris Sandoe, Bachman, member of the board of education of Columbus, addressed a large group of people Thursday evening.

Member R. V. Green, who for some months occupied room No. 3 left the first of the week for Detroit, where he will be engaged in the tailoring business. A letter of introduction to the Detroit Y. M. C. A. was carried with him.
